The West Lafayette Police Department is excited to unveil our new Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE) police vehicle. The Dodge Charger gives a new image and look to this valuable program that has touched the lives of thousands of children in our community.

Pictured below is DARE Officer Janet Winslow with her new DARE car. Officer Winslow has been a police officer for West Lafayette for over thirty-five years. She has served as the DARE Officer for the past nine years, having taught nearly four thousand children the DARE Program, teaching them valuable life lessons. Officer Winslow is the 2016 Indiana DARE Officer of the Year recipient and 2015 YWCA Women of Distinction award winner.

Among other accomplishments, Officer Winslow has been a certified law enforcement instructor for twenty-four years, Crime Scene Investigator for fifteen years, Rape Aggression Defense instructor for ten years, School Resource Officer for four years and has coordinated the West Lafayette Drug Take Back Program for the past seven years.
